(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Ordinance and to the direction, control and supervision of the Central Government, the Board of management shall be entitled, notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Act, 1956, (of 1956) to exercise, in relation to the undertaking of the company, all the powers of the Board of Directors of a company (including powers to dispose of any properties or assets of the company), whether such powers are derived from the Companies Act, 1956, or from the memorandum or articles of association of the company or from any other source.

4C. Appointment of an Administrator.—(1) There shall be an Administrator, to be appointed by the Central Government, to assist the Board of management to manage the affairs of the undertaking of the company.

(2) The Chairman or any other member of the Board of management may be appointed by the Central Government as the Administrator.

(3) All officers and other persons employed in connection with the affairs of the undertaking of the company shall be subordinate to the Administrator.

(4) The Administrator shall exercise, subject to the direction, control and supervision of the Board of management, such powers and discharge such functions of management in relation to the undertaking of the company as the Central Government may specify in this behalf.

(5) The Administrator shall receive from the funds of the undertaking of the company such remuneration as the Central Government may fix.

4D. Custodian to vacate office.—(1) The Custodian shall, on and from the date on which the management of the undertaking of the company is taken up by the Board of management, vacate his office as such; but nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as prohibiting his appointment as a member of the Board of management or as the Administrator.

(2) On the vacation of his office, the Custodian shall, where he is not appointed as the Administrator, forthwith deliver to the Administrator possession of all assets and properties of the company which are in his possession, custody and control on the date immediately preceding the date on which he vacates his office as the Custodian.

4E. Meetings, etc., of the Board of management.—(1) The Board of management shall meet for the transaction of its business at such time and place as it may think fit:

Provided that the Chairman may, whenever he thinks fit, and shall, upon the written requisition of not less than two members, call a special meeting.

(2) The quorum for a meeting of the Board of management shall be one-third of its total strength (any fraction contained in that one-third be rounded off as one) or three members, whichever is higher.

(3) The Chairman, or, in his absence, any member chosen by the members present from amongst themselves, shall preside at a meeting of the Board of management.

(4) All questions which come up before any meeting of the Board of management shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting, and in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman, or, in his absence, the persons presiding, shall have a second or casting vote.

(5) All orders and decisions of the Board of management shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or any other member authorised by the Board of management in this behalf and all other instruments issued by the undertaking of the company shall be authenticated with the signature of the Administrator or any other officer of the undertaking of the company authorised by the Board of management in this behalf.

(6) The Board of management shall regulate its own procedure."

6. Omission of section 5.—Section 5 of the principal Act shall be omitted.

7. Amendment of section 7.—In section 7 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), for the words "period of two years referred to in that sub-section", the words "period of five years referred to in that sub-section or the further period specified in any directions made under the proviso thereto" shall be substituted.

8. Amendment of section 9.—In section 9 of the principal Act, for the word "Custodian", wherever it occurs, the words "Administrator, Board of management or Custodian", shall be substituted.

9. Amendment of section 12.—In section 12 of the principal Act, after the words "any notification," the word "direction", shall be inserted.

10. Amendment of section 13.—In section 13 of the principal Act, for the word "Custodian", wherever it occurs, the words "Administrator, Board of management or Custodian" shall be substituted.

11. Amendment of section 16.—In section 16 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2), for clause (a), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—
